The scholarship of Rs 10 was granted to Charles Narasha on the ground that the family was in straitened circumstances. The present Scholarship of Rs 25 has been granted to him on grounds of merit & for study in a foreign place, Madras which is necessarily more expensive. Both the scholarships may under the circumstances be continued to him

The Honor's Scholarship has nothing to do with the 10 Rs grant which is really called Scholarship & mere Courtesy title. Its substance all & mere shadow of the 10 Rs grant both

8 If the Honour Scholarship has been awarded purely on considerations of merit I agree. But if family considerations have anything to do with the grant of the 10 Rs then the ten rupee schlp should cease. Please clear up the point
